

Local home-schooled students tour Richard B. Russell Airport

Sarah Tebo / Rome News-Tribune

TOP LEFT: Maj. Tonya Boylan of the Civil Air Patrol talks with students from the GRACE home-school group about her organization's opportunities for teens during a recent field trip to Richard B. Russell Regional Airport.

TOP RIGHT: First-grader Logan Pledger pretends to be air over the wing of the Tiger Flight plane Tiger Lady during a lesson on how airplanes fly.

LEFT: Third-grader Lydia Bailey checks out Tiger Lady's controls.

BELOW LEFT: Lt. Col. David Wright of the local branch of Georgia Youth Science and Technology Centers talks to teens about careers in aviation.

BELOW: Phil "Sunny" Cataldo, a pilot with Tiger Flight, gives young students a visual demonstration of the science behind flight.

